VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENT

Hygiene Promoter

Workplace: primarily Jonglei State; all states of South Sudan
Starting Date: July 2012
Initial Contract Details: 11 months with the possibility of extension, depending on funding for following projects

Polish Humanitarian Action (PAH) has been working in South Sudan, and Jonglei State specifically, since 2006. Our main area of expertise is providing WASH services to disadvantaged rural populations through drilling and rehabilitating boreholes, creating sustainable O&M structures, providing hygiene promotion and safe sanitation. PAH is beginning a new WASH project in which we are considerably expanding the EP&R component according to the needs identified primarily in Jonglei State, and all South Sudan in general. PAH is hence looking for candidates to work as Hygiene Promoters in the Emergency Response Team (ERT). The Team's primary objective is reacting to WASH crises in Jonglei State. The Emergency Response Team will also organize and/or support distributions of non-food items (NFIs), especially WASH-related. The team will mainly work in Jonglei and will be deployable to other states, if the need arises.

KEY AREAS OF ACCOUNTABILITY:

Hygiene Promoters will be part of the Emergency Response Team created specifically to respond to WASH emergencies occurring in Jonglei State. The Team will be capable of providing emergency water supply and sanitation solutions, as well as hygiene promotion suitable for Jonglei and other states.

The main responsibilities of Hygiene Promoters will be:

- Regular visits to the areas where WASH emergencies occur and responding to these emergencies through:
- Provision of emergency hygiene promotion
- Planning and carrying out needs assessments, baseline surveys that will be WASH-specific with emphasis on hygienic behaviours of the affected population
- Designing of an appropriate approach to hygiene and sanitation promotion
- Providing support/carrying out NFI distributions

- Cooperation with local authorities and local communities
- Facilitating appropriate community involvement in the design and delivery of essential WASH services and facilities
- Running documentation and monitoring of interventions
- Cooperation with Project/ Programme Coordinator
- Maintaining an accurate record and taking proper care of all field equipment and material stocks for the WASH ER Team
- Keeping proper records of field expenditures and reporting accordingly
- Writing reports from carried out interventions

QUALIFICATIONS, EXPERIENCE AND SKILLS:

Essential:

- Degree in Public Health, Hygiene Promotion, Community Development or related
- At least 1 year of practical experience in relevant community development, Hygiene Promotion and/or Public Health; in design, implementation and evaluation of sanitation & hygiene interventions
- Emergency response experience
- Good planning, organization and reporting skills
- Very good command of written and spoken English
- Ability to write clear reports
- Ability to cope with simple living conditions in insecure environments
- Team spirit, supporting a team of up to 7 people
- Self-starter with a dose of creativity

Desirable:

- Language skills in Arabic/ Nuer and other local languages
- Experience of working and living in South Sudan and Jonglei State in particular
- Ability to use communication technologies: Thuraya / radio
- Previous work experience in NGOs

HOW TO APPLY:

Applications (including cover letter, CV, copies of job certificates, reference contact details to three former employers AND salary expectations) for this position should be sent to: justyna.jablonska@pah.org.pl, no later than July 15th 2012. Please insert the following references in the subject field of your email: "South Sudan, Hygiene Promoter". Only short-listed candidates will be notified.
